

English 11 plans for the weeks of March 16 and March 30

My Dear Students:

I will have all of the materials available on Schoology. Also, Jerry and I will post instructional videos and lessons. If you are confused or need help, please contact me on Schoology through the message option or via email: morganm@cps-k12.org. I have provided print materials in class and will have clearly labeled submission areas on Schoology in a folder titled Remote Learning. You will submit documents and pictures through Schoology (preferable) or email to show your work, but make sure to keep all completed work. Check Powerschool to confirm the work is graded.

The tools and assignments for the two weeks impacted by the closure are as follows:

1. Decoding the News Media—due Tuesday, March 17 (We will work on this in class Monday, March 16).
2. Creating an Op-Ed News Project—due Friday, March 20 (This will be graded as a DRAFT. Complete the steps in the packet and compose a draft. We will craft and revise upon return.)
3. Vocabulary.com—weekly practice due Wednesday, March 18 and April 1, quizzes Friday, March 20 and April 3. The vocabulary will be for your novel so make sure you select the correct one based on reading Into the Wild, The Handmaid's Tale, or The Autobiography of Malcolm X.
4. Reading Guide Questions—submit responses on Schoology unless you have no access. Paper versions have been provided. The reading assignments are as follows:
  - a. Into the Wild—chapters 1-5 by April 2
  - b. The Handmaid's Tale—chapters 1-17 by April 2
  - c. The Autobiography of Malcolm X—chapters 1-9 by April 2
5. Schoology—check for calendar, submissions, and materials.

This covers everything and prevents us from falling behind. Your health and well-being are most important, and your continued education is among my top priorities. Take care of yourselves and each other. I will be so happy to see all of you upon return to school. We will be in touch, and I will have all of you in my thoughts.

All the Beth,

~Ms. Morgan
