DANCE:

In-Person Audition. After you complete the application, you will be assigned a time to come to the school for your audition. Dance students must be appropriately dressed for the dance audition. Girls: leotard and tights or shorts and tee shirt. Boys: tee shirt and tights or tee shirt and shorts. These should be of stretch fabric to allow a full range of movement. Students should bring ballet shoes if they have them. Students who have been on pointe should bring their pointe shoes to the audition. For beginning and entry-level students, the audition will consist of an assessment of flexibility, strength, coordination, musicality, focus and discipline. Basic ballet and modern positions will be demonstrated, and the students will be asked to imitate them to show evidence of kinesthetic sensibility, awareness of space, and ability to turn, jump and move with ease. For students with dance experience, please bring a photo in first arabesque and be dressed in a leotard, tights, and ballet shoes. Students will be asked to demonstrate combinations to show their level of dance technique. Students will be rated on physical ability, focus, and aesthetic sensibility.

DRAMA:

In-Person Audition. After you complete the application, you will be assigned a time to come to the school for your audition. Prepare one of the monologues below from either Charlie and The Chocolate Factory OR Charlotte's Web. Please begin by introducing yourself and your piece. The monologue must be performed by memory and must be memorized exactly. You will be rated on volume, diction and vocal control, movement, use of gestures, and how well you bring the monologue to life. Remember, it is your job to convince us that your character and your situation are real. After your performance, you may be asked questions about yourself and your character.

INTRODUCTION: Hi! My name is (say your first and last name). Today, I will be performing (say your character name) from (say the monologue or play name).

Charlotte's Web:

The Narrator: (To audience) Shh! Listen to the sounds of the morning. Very, very early morning. So early, in fact, the sun isn't even up yet. Listen to the crickets... the hoot-owls... a frog down by the pond... a dog up at the next farm...

And today there's another sound. It tells that something exciting happened during the night. Some brand-new pigs were born. Here's one of them right now exploring his new home. His name is – well, actually he doesn't have a name, yet. For the moment, he's still just a little pig. But as you'll see, he isn't just any ordinary pig.

Charlie and The Chocolate Factory (Roald Dahl)

Slugworth: May I introduce myself? My name is Slugworth, President of Slugworth Chocolates, Incorporated. Now listen carefully because I'm going to make you very rich indeed.

Mr. Wonka is at this moment working on a fantastic invention: the Everlasting Gobstopper. If he succeeds, he'll ruin me. So all I want you to do is to get hold of just one Everlasting Gobstopper and bring it to me so that I can find the secret formula. Your reward will be ten thousand of these. (He flips through a stack of money.)

Think it over, will you? A new house for your family, and good food and comfort for the rest of their lives. And don't forget the name: Everlasting Gobstopper.
